PHIL NEAL

I HAVE already seen Stoke a couple of times this season, when they confirmed my view that they would be one of the fancied sides in the division. So I anticipate a tough test from Alan Ball's lads this afternoon. As a player Alan had that natural sort of bite, a spark in his game that is reflected in the way his team plays.

But, while we know we will have our work cut out to-day, I'm confident that we can build on the result we got against Mansfield on Tuesday—and hopefully go one better.

The important thing on Tuesday was that we got a result. I know it was another indifferent performance in the supporter's eyes but it was a point on the board that we really needed.

The arrival of Sammy Lee will prove a great asset to the club. We were all saddened to lose the services of Bobby Savage recently in such tragic circumstances but Bobby and Sammy are of a similar type and we all know from his short time with us nine months ago that Sammy's enthusiasm for the game can be very infectious.

I believe I have brought a player to the club who can be a major influence and I'm sure that before long the supporters will see for themselves.

VISITORS REVIEW

An update of today's opposition

WE extend a warm welcome to the players, officials and supporters of Stoke City. Currently tasting Third Division football for the first time since 1927, Stoke are widely expected to be among the promotion front-runners this season and seem certain to be the best supported club in the section. Despite relegation last season, the club's gates actually increased by nearly 27% with a highly respectable average of 12,449. This season they have already had a home crowd of 16,009 for the visit of Birmingham with the other gates being 13,048, 11,901 and 12,672.

Man in charge at the Victoria Ground is Alan Ball, Farnworth born of course and proud holder of 72 England caps earned with Blackpool, Everton and Arsenal between 1965-75. Originally appointed first team coach last October, Ball, the former Portsmouth manager, took over the reins when Mick Mills was sacked on November 7th, at first on a caretaker basis.

Only six League wins were secured in a disastrous campaign which saw Stoke relegated in 24th position. Stoke mustered only 35 goals in 46 games and fielded 37 players in all. This season the campaign began with a settled side boosted by the experienced midfielder Mick Kennedy from Luton. An opening day 3-1 win over Rotherham represented only the second home victory since December and was followed by a fine 2-1 win at fancied Tranmere. A run of 2 points from 3 games was ended by an emphatic 4-0 home win over Southend but last Saturday Stoke suffered a surprise 1-3 home defeat by previously winless Shrewsbury. In mid-week Stoke were at Crewe and returned to winning ways with Paul Ware's 78th minute goal after Alex's Darren Foreman had equalised Wayne Biggins' opener.

In the Rumbelows Cup Stoke beat Swansea 1-0 on aggregate in the first round but went down 0-3 at West Ham in their second round, first leg game at Upton Park and have a big task on their hands to get back into the tie at the Victoria Ground next week.

Outstanding goalkeeper Peter Fox made his League debut with Sheffield Wednesday in 1972-73 but has spent the majority of his career with Stoke, joining the club during the 1977-78 season. The 33 year old made his 400th League appearance late last season in the home game against Oxford in April.

Defender John Butler joined Stoke from Wigan Athletic two seasons ago and has made the number two shirt his own with some accomplished displays. Snapped up from Prescot Cables, the 28 year old Liverpoolian made 245 appearances for the Latics, scoring 15 goals and completed 300 League games last season. Former West Brom left back Derek Statham moved to the Victoria Ground at the start of last season from Southampton. The 31 year old former England international spent nearly 12 seasons at The Hawthorns and made his reputation as an outstanding defender before making 64 appearances at The Dell to take his career tally past the 350 mark. 28 year old Kingston born defender Noel Blake joined Stoke last season after a short spell with Leeds. The former Aston Villa, Birmingham and Portsmouth number five made his 300th League appearance on the opening day of this season. Blake is partnered by former England youth international Lee Sandford who was signed from Portsmouth last season. The 22 year old Basingstoke born Sandford made his 100th League appearance last month against Southend.

England Under-21 international Carl Beeston joined the club as an apprentice and made his League bow in 1984-85. The 23 year old local born midfielder became a first team regular for the first time last season when he made 38 League appearances. The experienced Mick Kennedy is another former Portsmouth player who has joined ex Pompey manager Alan Ball at Stoke. The 29 year old highly respected midfielder, with 2 Eire caps, was born in Salford, beginning his League career with Halifax in 1978, and has since made nearly 450 appearances, numbering Huddersfield, Middlesbrough, Bradford City, Leicester and Luton amongst his other clubs. Congleton born midfielder Paul Ware came up through the trainee ranks at the Victoria Ground and made his League debut as a teenager three seasons ago. He has since made around 30 League appearances for the club.

25 year old striker Tony Ellis made his name locally with Horwich RMI, eventually moving into the League with Oldham in 1986-87 after playing for Northwich Vics. He became a first team regular when he moved to Preston, scoring 26 goals in 86 games, before joining Stoke last December. Ellis linked up with Wayne Biggins, a 28 year old striker, who numbers Burnley, Norwich and Manchester City among his previous clubs. After beginning his career with Lincoln, Biggins drifted into non league football with Matlock Town and King's Lynn before moving to Turf Moor in 1983. Last season, his first at Stoke, he was top scorer with 10 goals. 36 year old Mickey Thomas began his League career with Wrexham nearly 20 years ago. He subsequently played for Manchester United, Everton, Brighton, Stoke, Chelsea, West Brom, Shrewsbury and Leeds as well as having a spell in American indoor soccer. He returned to Stoke on loan late last season and the move was made permanent during the summer. Thomas, who has 51 caps, has made over 530 League appearances in a distinguished career.

24 year old midfielder Tony Kelly was recruited from St. Albans City last season and made his League debut at Port Vale in February. 21 year old Nottingham born defender Lee Fowler came up through the trainee ranks and is beginning to challenge for a regular place after 15 games last season and a substitute's role so far this term, while 26 year old Londoner Cliff Carr is now in his fourth season at Stoke after moving from Fulham where he made 145 League appearances and won England under 21 honours. He completed a century of League games for Stoke last season.

BARCLAYS FOOTBALL SUPPORTER OF THE YEAR

THE search is on to find the region's Football Supporter of the Year... you know the sort of soccer-mad individual who puts his (or her) love of the sport before almost everything else.

Barclays is launching the competition which is open to the 11 clubs in the served by the Bank's head office at 51 Moseley Street, Manchester.

Supporters clubs at Manchester United, Manchester City, Oldham Athletic, Blackburn Rovers, Bury, Rochdale, Stockport County, Wigan Athletic, Burnley, Crewe Alexandra and Bolton Wanderers are being asked to choose one fan as their nominee to go before a grand jury who will decide on an outright winner worthy of the title Barclays Football Supporter of the Year.

That person will be presented with a trophy and a cheque for £250 by footballing legend Bobby Charlton at his annual Charity Dinner at the Midland Holiday Inn Crown Plaza Hotel, in Manchester city centre on Thursday, November 22, 1990.

The competition is open to anyone who regularly supports one of these 11 clubs, and nominations will only be accepted by the individual supporters' clubs. The closing date for entries is 31 October, 1990.

POST BAG

Holly Ave,
Walkden.

Dear Manager,

I am writing to you about the photograph enclosed, taken in 1921 of the Bolton Ladies Football Team. I only knew the one at the end of the back row on the right of the players as you look at the picture. Her name was Martha Cowcill who lived in New Bury. She later played hockey for St. James' New Bury team in Farnworth S.S. League. When the team stopped playing Martha joined our Club, St. Paul's Walkden, in the Bolton S.S. League. She was a fearless player (full back), and a 'reet good pal. She died a few years back. I thought it might be of interest.

I thought the Wanderers in their best years in the 1920's—the time of Tommy Banks—'Purr 'em/it', Teddy Vizard and Joe Smith. I am sorry to say I do not like watching football now.

Anyway I hope they will forget the money side and play the game as a team and so get back to real football as a game then we shall see something worthwhile as it was in 1923, 1926 and 1929.

Yours sincerely,
Elizabeth Howel.

PS The photograph was found among my sister's effects. She played hockey and netball, eventually becoming a life founder member of the All England Netball Association on the selectors committee for choosing the England team—Ellen Marsh.

LOOK BACK IN TIME

Reports and events from years past

6th OCTOBER

1888: Burnley completed the double over Bolton by winning 4-1 at Turf Moor. Bob Roberts scored for the Wanderers. The reserves meanwhile were representing the club in the first round of the FA Cup. They played out a scoreless draw at Manchester League club Hurst but unbeknown to the playing members of the home side the Committee had already decided to scratch from the competition.

1892: Jim Cassidy put Bolton one up inside two minutes at Notts County, but they had to settle for a point in the end from a 2-2 draw, Jim McNee scoring the other.

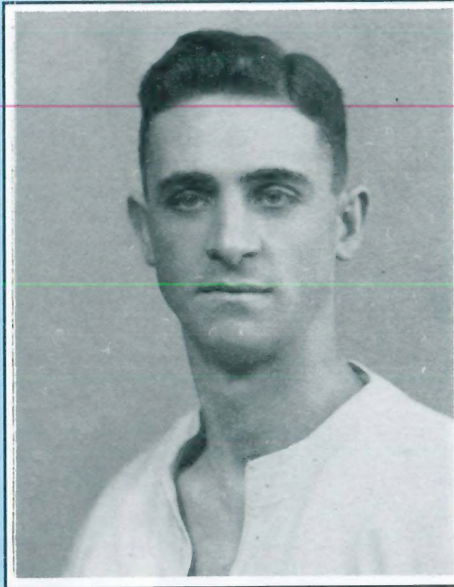

1894: Everton, who had won their opening six League games of the new season, visited Pikes Lane and kept up their impressive record with a 3-1 win. Charlie Henderson put Bolton in front early on but the League leaders fought back before a 13,000 crowd.

1900: League leaders Aston Villa were defeated 1-0 at Burnden Park with the winner coming in the 63rd minute from Larry Bell. Wanderers secretary John Somerville played his first game of the season in place of William Halley.

1923: Bolton were twice in front at Sunderland but had to settle for a point from a 2-2 draw with both goals coming from John Smith.

1928: Wanderers found themselves at the bottom of the First Division after a 1-0 home defeat by Bury before a crowd of 37,181.

1934: The Third Division North's champions of the previous season, Barnsley, became Bolton's next victims as they recorded their 8th win from their opening 9 games. The clubs record League victory was also set, five goals in the final six minutes giving Bolton an 8-0 win. The goals came from Westwood (21 mins), (33) (39) GT Taylor (84) (87) Shotton own goal (88), Westwood (89) and Milsom (90).

JACK MILSOM SCORED LAST GOAL ON THIS DAY IN 1934 DURING BOLTON'S RECORD LEAGUE WIN

1973: A goal from Bolton born striker Bobby Owen gave Carlisle United the points against the Wanderers in a Second Division encounter at Brunton Park.

1979: Wanderers made it six games without a win when Derby County cruised to 4-0 win at the Baseball Ground. John Duncan and Paul Emson scored two a piece for County who themselves were in the relegation zone.

1984: Bolton were still without a point away from home after going down 3-1 at Reading. Jeff Chandler scored a spectacular goal for Bolton whilst the home sides goals came from Dean Horrix, Trevor Senior and Colin Duncan.

The latest BEN action from the game

2nd October

TUESDAY night saw the Wanderers pick up their first point in four games against a Mansfield side also struggling to overcome a slow start to the season. The first half didn't see too much goal-mouth action but a rare Mansfield excursion into the Bolton half saw them take the lead just before half time. Phil's pep talk during the interval once again saw a more determined Bolton side pen the visitors into their half of the field for virtually all the second half and even though the Whites equalised in the 60th minute through David Reeves it wasn't enough to gain a much needed victory.

RIGHT:

FOOTBALL IN COMMUNITY NEWS

Today we welcome Stoke City and their Junior Potters who this morning played our Junior Whites on the astro-turf, I hope the young lads win like last time against Crewe.

On the Community front, Eastham Way Old People's Home were taken to Blackpool recently by the trainees and had a great time with a fish and chip supper and a good sing song on the way back.

The School's scheme at the moment is looking forward to a 6-a-side competition sponsored by McDonalds, with the winners going to the G-Mex for the finals. Hopefully Bolton could get a trophy pretty soon, if not we hope the kids enjoy themselves.

IN CONVERSATION

"IF this is football you can keep it" was Jane's initial reaction after watching her first football match between Norwich and West Ham at rain-soaked Carrow Road. Even when she met up with Phil at Halifax she never went initially but steady persuasion won and Jane really got involved. "I took up match programme advertising to promote my pub and restaurant" she said.

Ambitious Jane is of course the owner of The Fleece Inn between Huddersfield and Halifax. Nowadays she organises her own work around Bolton Wanderers. "It controls my entire social life" she revealed.

So what's it like being married to the Wanderers skipper? "I see him as a good captain", she said, "because he has the Club at heart. Phil told me before we got married that football comes first always." Husband Phil assists with the pub work when he can but never Friday's. "We always have a pasta for tea then I go to work and Phil goes to bed." Jane and Phil travel together to every home game. "It takes him as long as me to get ready" she said with a smile, "and he is always tense and keyed up and generally argues about anything, but he normally starts it. I'm learning to keep my mouth shut." If the match results in a win Phil is "normally euphoric if he's playing well," Jane explained "but if they have lost he's down in the dumps and I spend a lot of time

JANE BROWN

A HIT WITH THE MISSES

Over the years football has become increasingly popular with female enthusiasts proven by women's teams competing at national level, female club physio's and commercial managers. "In Conversation" voices their opinion—but only one at a time! !

trying to cheer him up."

Jane's most memorable game was the Sherpa Van Final against Torquay at Wembley and it was her first visit to the Stadium. Away from football Phil is quite a family man. Jane said, "We have one rule in the house that if I make a meal, he has to wash up and visa versa."

Phil is a keen jazz music enthusiast and every Sunday lunch a jazz band entertains diners at The Fleece. "They love it" chipped in Phil over Jane's shoulder. Their pet do has taken up the Brown name, Sweet Georgia, in fact. Wander who thought that one up?

Football is a constant topic of conversation in pubs and one would imagine that Jane can't get away from the game but that's not quite so. She explained, "When the Wanderers lose the regulars tend to have a go but when they're winning there isn't much conversation." For Jane's sake let's hope the team keep winning!!

The recent tragic sudden death of David Longhurst shook the Brown family and Phil in particular. He said, "We had just been trounced at Huddersfield, Robbie Savage had just been told his footballing career had come to an end and I was told in the dressing room of David's death. Not long before he had come to my wedding reception. He was always smiling and a good friend."

ON the treatment table was where we met up with Mark as we spoke to him about his days when he was a regular at the Victoria Ground, the home of Stoke City, today's visitors.

Currently returning to fitness after his ankle ligament injury against Crewe last month Mark spoke fondly of his days on the Boothen End of the ground watching the likes of George Eastham and Gordon Banks grace the Potteries outfit. "Yes it was great, my Dad used to take me when I was something like 5 or 6 and I was regularly at all the home games and quite a few away games until I started to play for Winsford Utd."

Mark did in fact have 2 trial games for Stoke but nothing materialised and he in fact went working for I.C.L. Computers when he left school, taking quite a bit of stick off his mates in Winsford who were all usually Manchester Utd or Liverpool fans while he continued to follow his favourites.

It wasn't until he was 20 that Mark joined his local club Winsford in the Cheshire League and within 18 months he had attracted the attentions of a number of League clubs before Bolton moved in to offer a 2 year contract after a successful 2-match run in the reserve side. Mark continues, "It was a gamble for me at the time, giving up such a secure job and only recently married, but I never regretted it." He made his debut in the League Cup at Notts County in a 6-1 defeat, a game best forgotten from a Wanderers point of view, and made his League debut in a 2-1 win over York City marking prolific goalscorer Keith Walwyn. This proved to be a terrific battle with Mark needing 8 stitches, with just for good measure John Fashanu waiting for him in his next game. But he went from strength to strength earning himself a reputation for being one of the best central defenders in the Third Division.

Mark's highlight playing for the club was reaching Wembley in the Freight Rover Final in 1986 and although we finished on the losing side, it was a very special day for the big man playing at the Twin Towers.

Having just been made captain of Bolton and barely weeks after lifting the Lancs Cup, tragedy struck for Mark in September 1988 with his horrific broken leg in the Littlewoods Cup tie at Chester. It was a cruel blow to both player and club, keeping him out of the side for over 12 months before a fairytale return to first team action in ironically a Littlewoods Cup tie at Swindon Town last October, when he came on as sub to score a last minute equaliser in a thrilling 3-3 draw. It had been a long road to recovery but all the hard work, sweat and toil had been worth it, he was back in first team business.

This season saw Mark holding down his favourite No.5 shirt in the side until that nasty ankle injury sidelined him once again. Hopefully next week will see him getting a run out with the reserve side and back in contention for the Whites.

Whilst Mark has recently been sidelined, so his wife Denise who is on the mend after a recent operation, leaving the popular Wanderer the tricky task of looking after the four youngsters.

Mark is looking for his team mates to put one over his former favourites this afternoon, even though you can sense the special times he had in his younger days at the Victoria Ground.

THE Reserves were left looking for their first home points of the season after Burnley, inspired by Roger Eli, left Burnden with a 3-2 win.

Bolton were dangerous early on with Neil Fisher, playing in an unaccustomed full back role, getting forward to set up Paul Comstive whose diving header was just wide of target.

Trialist Marcus Brown had a shot on the turn deflected inches wide but Burnley took the lead out of the blue when, in the 22nd minute, Roger Eli let fly from 25 yards and his wind assisted effort flew into the net.

The Wanderers equalised in the 37th minute when Marcus Brown flicked the ball through for Mike Jeffrey to run on to shoot home from 10 yards.

On the stroke of half time Gary Henshaw, who gave an eye catching display in midfield, produced a pin point cross for Marcus Brown to send a spectacular scissor kick goalwards only to see 'keeper David Williams save well.

Mike Jeffrey was denied a second in the 57th minute, his volley from the edge of the area striking the bar before bouncing clear.

Six minutes later Burnley again took the lead somewhat against the run of play. Roger Eli got clear on the right and his cross squeezed through to Jason Withe at the far post who slotted the ball into an empty net.

Three minutes from time Burnley got a third with Eli again involved. This time his header from a Nigel Smith cross was pushed onto the crossbar by Kevin Rose and substitute John Rhaman put away the rebound.

A minute later Bolton reduced the arrears when a 37 yard blast from Phil Neal squirmed out of Williams' grasp and with pressure from Barry Smith the 'keeper couldn't prevent the ball from crossing the line.

In the dying seconds Burnley's defence twice cleared off the line as the Wanderers pushed forward in search of a point.

(Carter, Whatmore) (Crooks)

THE LATICS produced a 32 page A5 size programme for our visit a week last night. Priced at 80p it was a vast improvement on last season's effort and quite commendable when you realise that the average attendance is only around the 2,500 mark.

Interesting columns in the programme included "On the Air" and "Division News" which covered news throughout the Third Division. By far the most interesting feature was "Past Encounters" and "Memories", which was very informative.

Quite good value at 80p, it certainly is a step in the right direction for the Springfield Park outfit.

SAFE HANS

A lighthearted look at football

IT is very interesting to note that both Southend and Grimsby promoted from the Fourth Division last season have got off to a tremendous start to the season. Both sides have been scoring plenty of goals and even though Southend recently conceded twelve goals in just two games they came bouncing back to win their next two games to go top of the table. Brett Angell signed from Stockport County for £100,000, has already started to repay that fee with a few early season goals and he does look like a striker that will cause Third Division defenders some problems this campaign.

Tuesday night's results didn't cause too many shocks although it's still hard to work out how ourselves and Rotherham have had such an indifferent start to the season. We had so much of the play against Mansfield it was unbelievable, but once again we had to come from behind with a well worked Tony Phil-liskirk move that saw David Reeves score a well deserved goal. In the end though we couldn't break down the Stags well drilled defence to secure the three points and it was a major disappointment to all concerned. Referring back to Rotherham who many would have forecasted a good season like ourselves, with the Yorkshire outfit looking a well balanced side who play a good blend of attacking football. It's funny you know but Brentford were widely tipped last season for promotion honours but had a horrendous start to the campaign before coming strong later in the season. Let's just hope we can get our early season hiccups out of the way and start progressing.

After the game on Tuesday night it was back home to watch European Special on BBC1, and what a gripper that was! Rangers were already on their way through to the Second Round before a ball was kicked with a 4-0 away leg victory already in the Ibrox vault. The torrential rain didn't help matters when the game got under way and opposition was too clever, but the Scottish side did serve up enough entertainment and goals to satisfy a crowd of over 20,000 which when you think about it, on such an awful night and with the game already in the bag from the first leg, it was a superb turnout.

Finally, let's wish for a good game this afternoon; Stoke I am sure, will be very attractive opposition. They had a fine win at Crewe in midweek and no doubt manager Alan Ball will have them fired up as he returns to his native Bolton.

Stoke City make their first visit to Burnden Park today since April 1980 when a First Division encounter ended 2-1 in Bolton's favour.

Indeed that was the Wanderers last win in the top flight with Neil Whatmore's winner also proving to be the club's last goal in that company as they failed to find the net in either of their final games.

Gareth Crooks had put Stoke in front on the stroke of half time but Bolton, who were already relegated, equalised with a goal from Mike Carter.

Earlier that season Bolton recorded their 14th consecutive game without a win when a goal from Brendan O'Callaghan gave Stoke the points at the Victoria Ground.

The only League games between the clubs during the seventies took place during the Wanderers promotion winning season of 1977/78. These Second Division matches are the only ones in the previous 60 played to have taken place outside Division One.

In October 1977 Howard Kendall put Stoke ahead in the 20th minute at Burnden but two minutes later on loan striker Frank Worthington, who was making his debut, equalised for Bolton.

That two teams that day were:

The following February a goalless draw resulted at Stoke with Jim McDonagh producing a number of class saves to help win a point.

Stoke's last victory at Burnden came in October 1963 when a last minute goal from Jimmy McIlroy gave them a 4-3 win. Francis Lee scored twice for Bolton, one from the penalty spot, Dennis Butler scoring the other.

It was in the same season that Wanderers last won at the Victoria Ground, a Francis Lee goal separating the teams in February 1964, but it didn't help prevent Bolton's eventual relegation to Division Two, this result being sandwiched between two 5-0 defeats at Manchester United and at home to Blackburn Rovers.

Our overall League record against Stoke is as follows:

TONY HENRY began his career with Manchester City with whom he made something of a reputation for his ability to play in a number of positions.

He appeared as substitute in the 1981 FA Cup final but after 79 League appearances for City moved to Bolton for £120,000 in September of that year.

In his two seasons at Burnden he became top scorer in an attacking midfield role, his first goal being against Watford at Burnden in November 1981 which was won 2-0.

In March 1983 he moved on to Oldham Athletic making 190

1925/26 SEASON

FOR the start of the 1925/26 season the off-side law was amended from 3 opponents to only 2 opponents between an attacker and the goalline. In the opening game at home to Newcastle, in which the Wanderers fielded their cup winning side of the two years previous, there were only 3 offside decisions in the game which ended 2-2.

Eight League games were played in the opening 3 weeks, 3 of which were won, including a 5-0 win over Bury at Gigg Lane and a 5-2 reverse at Leicester.

Joe Cassidy, who had failed to force his way into the League side during the opening weeks, left the Club to join Cardiff City for £3,500. Successive wins over London clubs, 1-0 v West Ham at Burnden and 3-2 over Arsenal at Highbury, in which Ted Vizard netted all three, the last in the 87th minute, lifted the Club into 8th place.

For the next game against Blackburn at Burnden, Joe Smith was relegated to the reserves at his own request to recover his lost form, Jack Baggett came into the forward line and also scored in a 2-2 draw.

A run of three successive wins lifted the Wanderers into 5th place but at the end of November bottom club Cardiff came to Burnden and won 1-0. Home confidence was however soon restored when Champions Huddersfield were thumped 6-1. Town were chasing their third title in a row and amazingly took the lead after only 4 minutes.

There was a mixed opening to 1926. John Smith hit a hat trick in a 5-3 home win over Birmingham on New Years Day and a day later the Wanderers went down 5-1 at Newcastle.

The third round of the FA Cup paired the Wanderers with Accrington Stanley and the game was switched to Burnden in the interests of safety. Despite the switch it was a slender Wanderers win, David Jack scoring the only goal, although they were reduced to ten men when Ted Vizard was sent off for foul play.

A week later the best League gate of the season, 33,738, saw the Wanderers inflict Bury's first defeat since 21st November with a 3-2 win. A David Jack goal five minutes from time gave the Wanderers a 2-2 draw in the fourth round of the FA Cup at Bournemouth. The replay was won 6-2 and within an hour of the victory the Wanderers signed Charles Roberts from the South Coast side in a dramatic piece of business.

A 6-0 defeat was incurred at West Ham before a 3-0 home win over South Shields in the 5th round of the cup. It took three attempts to defeat Nottingham Forest in the 6th round, Joe Smith scoring the only goal in the second replay, at Old Trafford.

Despite the importance of the Cup, League form remained consistent. Manchester United were beaten 3-1 at Burnden in which Charles Roberts scored twice to register his first goals for the Wanderers. Unfortunately both John Smith and Alec Finney were long term injury victims, Smith missing his first cup ties since joining the club, when the Wanderers defeated Swansea Town in the semi final. All the goals in the 3-0 win came in the first half, Jack Baggett and Joe Smith with a couple, sending the club to Wembley for the second time.

Two days after the semi final win the Wanderers faced Manchester City in a cup final rehearsal. City were bottom of the League and the game ended a 1-1 draw.

Ten League games were played in the final month of the season, three of which ended in defeat.

On April 24th a 78th minute goal from David Jack won the FA Cup for Bolton before a crowd of 91,447. It was expected to be the last cup final to be played at Wembley due to its impending sale but history has since proved otherwise.

HELPING THE GAME

A fine new stand - one of the many initiatives supported by Trust funds.

The Football Trust 1990 has been created to help the game at all levels and to assist clubs meet the requirements of Lord Justice Taylor's Final Report.

Safety and comfort for all spectators is the primary objective and substantial funds have been made available for the provision of seating at Football League grounds. At the same time the Trust's commitment to family and community initiatives, will continue with the provision of more family enclosures, better toilet facilities, covered accommodation, artificial pitches for local use and the development of women's and junior football particularly through community programmes, plus a wide range of policing and crowd control measures.

Each year The Trust expects to receive £20 million from the reduction in Pool Betting Duty plus the £10 million continuing contribution from the Spotting-the-Ball competition organised by Littlewoods, Vernons and Zettors. This money will be invested in projects which benefit football throughout the United Kingdom.
